

What behavior have we observed?

What can we imagine them doing?

What are their fears, frustrations, and anxieties?

What other feelings might influence their behavior?